

Composition

Write your own tune by filling in the empty beats. Use coloured pens or pencils.

You can use any rhythm you like, but only the following notes:

Share your finished compositions with us and we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

/figurenotes

/figurenotes

/figurenotesmusic

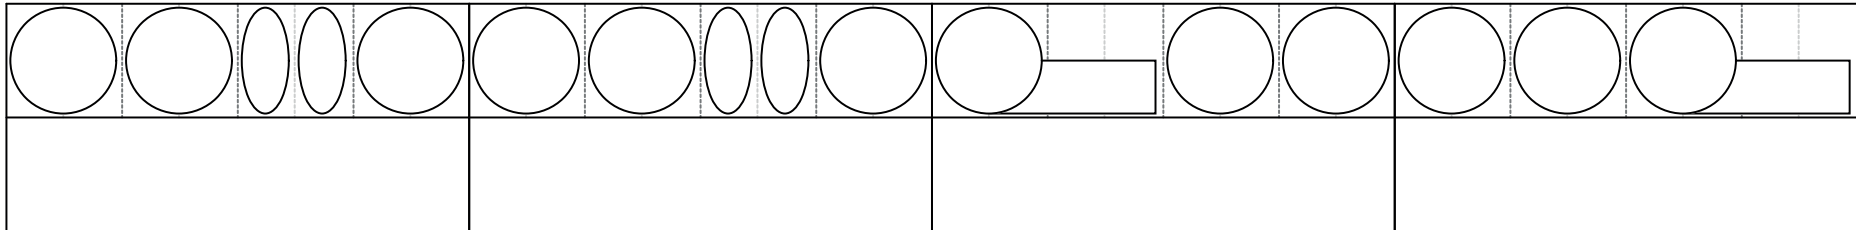

'Figurenotes'

Composition

Write your own tune by colouring in the white notes. Use coloured pens or pencils.

Use only these notes:

Share your finished compositions with us and
we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

/figurenotes

/figurenotes

/figurenotesmusic

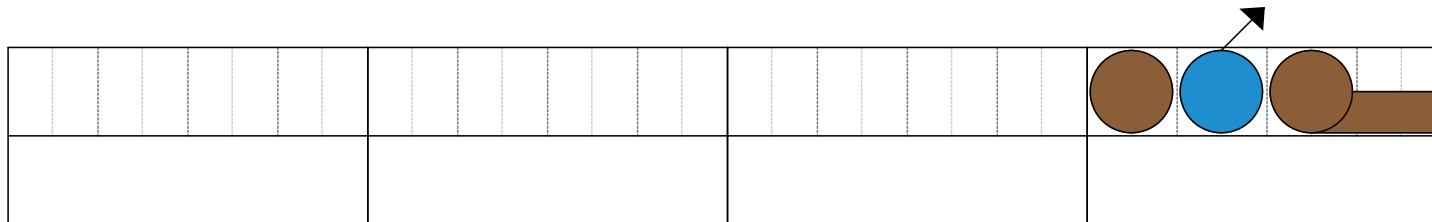

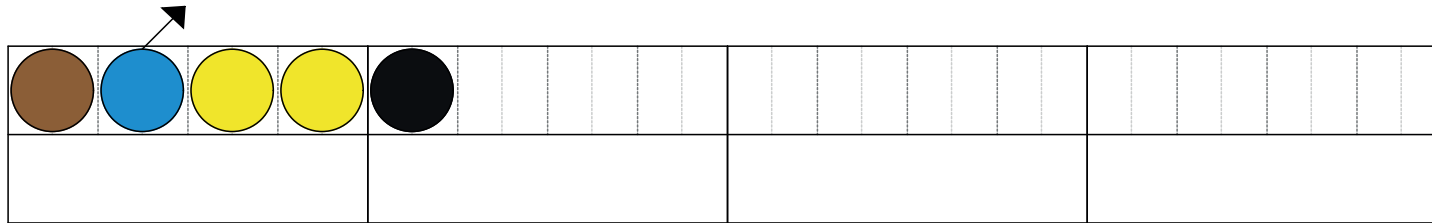

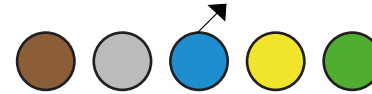

'Figurenotes'

Composition

Write your own tune by filling in the empty beats. Use coloured pens or pencils.

You can use any rhythm you like, but only the following notes:

Share your finished compositions with us and we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

/figurenotes

/figurenotes

/figurenotesmusic

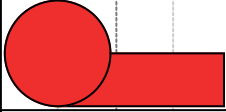

'Figurenotes'

Composition

Write your own tune by filling in the empty spaces. Use coloured pens or pencils.

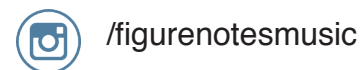

Some of the rhythm has been written for you, but the rest is up to you.

Use any of these notes:

Share your finished compositions with us and we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

Composition

Use this blank page to make your own Figurenotes tune. Your teacher might suggest some notes for you to use.

Share your finished compositions with us and we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

/figurenotes

/figurenotes

/figurenotesmusic

'Figurenotes'

Composition

Use this blank page to make your own Figurenotes rhythm using black circles.
Now play it by clapping, tapping, stomping, singing, or playing on your instrument.
If you need help getting started, your teacher can give you some ideas.

Share your finished compositions with us and
we'll share the best ones on our social media channels!

/figurenotes

/figurenotes

/figurenotesmusic

'Figurenotes'