

Figurenotes Vocal Guide

Figurenotes works brilliantly for vocals.

Use a string of beads
or make your own version of our image

Tie knots in between the beads to show
where the black keys would be on a keyboard.
This shows the tones and semitones.

By pointing to the different coloured beads and singing the correct notes, you can start to build a relationship between higher and lower notes.

