

The Pie Song

Sing:

I made a big pie
It is piping hot
I am so hungry
I could eat the lot

Ask:

“What pie did you make?”

Sing:

I made a [cherry] pie
It is piping hot
I am so hungry
I could eat the lot

Each person in the group is asked what pie they have made. Any flavour at all - Mainstream and delicious, or experimental and gross! Add the flavour into the song.

Worm pie, anyone?
